

Garner Andrews: A Visionary Leader for Lions International

Proven Track Record in Membership Development

Garner Andrews has committed to strengthening Lions International, demonstrating a powerful commitment to membership development. Through personal mentorship and sponsorship, he has inspired dozens to join the Lions Club and make a meaningful impact. Garner has also been instrumental in cultivating future leaders by forming multiple Leo clubs and nurturing the next generation of Lions.

His innovative thinking led to the creation of the Pixels & Dice Lions Club, a virtual club that expands the reach of Lions to new demographics, proving his ability to adapt to modern challenges. Under his leadership, new Lions clubs have formed in Georgia, further solidifying the organization's presence and community impact.

Unique Perspective

Garner's corporate background as a senior executive at Epsilon, a digital marketing industry leader, brings valuable skills to Lions International, offering a unique perspective on leadership:

- Strategic Planning: Expertise in developing and executing growth strategies.
- Marketing and Communications: Building strong brands and reaching new audiences.
- Technology and Innovation: Embracing digital tools to drive efficiency and enhance service impact.

Commitment to Service

Garner has a lifelong dedication to service. He has organized and participated in projects that address all of Lions International's global areas of service, ensuring positive impacts across diverse communities. Garner and his wife Amy are both progressive Melvin Jones Fellows.

His commitment to serving others has earned him the endorsement of the Alpharetta Lions Club, District 18L, Multiple District 18, and other Lions leaders.

Lifelong Lion

As a third-generation Lion, Garner's passion for service runs deep, and he has shared his passion for service with his family. His wife, Amy, and his children, Lindsey, Peyton, and Tate are all involved with the Lions. Having been involved in the organization his entire life, he has served in numerous leadership roles, including Past District Governor (PDG), Past Council Chair (PCC), Area Leader, Multiple District Global Membership Team Chair, and District Global Leadership Team Chair.

With over 27 years as a dedicated Lion, Garner's leadership at the local, district, multiple district, and constitutional area levels equips him with a broad understanding of the organization's challenges and opportunities. By leveraging his extensive Lions experience and corporate expertise, Garner Andrews is poised to work alongside LCI executive officers and board members to lead Lions International into a new era of growth, innovation, and global impact.
