About Lion Gary Roadifer

Lion Gary has served his Lions Club, District, and our Association of Lions Clubs in many capacities for over 40 years. A proud and active Lion of the Pine Bluffs Lions Club since 1985. The appreciation of serving the communities and those in need that Lions provide is Lion Gary's greatest joy. Throughout Lion Gary's member as a Lion he has benefitted from the guidance and support of mentors. From their mentoring and his educational background, he understands the importance of lifetime learning, the relationship that is built, and the development of leadership. He believes exceptional leaders are recognized for their ability to cultivate a culture of leadership that encourages and develops great leaders at every level of the organization. Lion Gary continues to take the responsibility to cultivate leaders.

Lion Gary and his wife, Liz, met while attending the University of Wyoming. Liz grew up in New Jersey and Lion Gary grew up on a ranch in Wyoming. The merging of their different backgrounds into a lifelong partnership has been a blessing, They have been happily married for 51 years. They have 2 sons and 1 granddaughter and 2 grandsons. Liz is a published author, writing 3 different genres: thrillers, fantasy romance, and young adult. She has won numerous awards, the latest being the 2018 National Excellence in Romance Fantasy. Lion Gary is a retired educator of 40 years at the elementary classroom and administrator. Lion Gary spent 20 years as a coach at the junior high and high school level in football, wrestling, and track. They enjoy traveling. Their latest adventure was a 2 week tour of Egypt.

Bridging the gaps in our communities and state.

Moving Leadership and Training to the next level.

Lion Gary is grateful for the opportunity to serve our Association as an International Director and views it as an extension of the passion and dedication he has served at the club and District levels. He is qualified to serve in this position and has proven to be a successful example in representing all Lions in leadership positions. Lion Gary is most proud of the relationships he has fostered with countless Lions and building those bonds to better our Lions clubs and district. As a candidate having obtained the endorsement of Single District 15, Wyoming, and certification from Lions International for the office of International Director, Lion Gary is confident in his abilities to represent our Association, and pledges to do everything possible to excel in all aspects expected of and demonstrated by an International Director .
